Live Oak Media Announces eReadalongs: An Exceptional New Reading and Listening Experience!

We're delighted to introduce eReadalongs, an exciting new digital format for our award-winning audio productions.

As a boutique audio publisher, we're uniquely able to listen (We love to listen!) and respond to our customers. You've told us that you would like to have digital versions of what we do - not animation, not interaction, just a digital way to enjoy the books and the distinctive audio productions that enhance them.

So that's what we've done! Children will be excited to use our eReadalongs on the computer - and you can be assured that you are still providing them with the same quality readalong experience you've come to expect from our productions.

Ordering eReadalongs couldn't be easier! They can be purchased right on our website. After you set up your digital account, the eReadalongs you purchase will be delivered to your computer through a streaming process. Visit our website for more info and to get started!

As our eReadalong program grows, we continue to welcome your suggestions. Thanks to the many folks who stopped by our booths at PLA (Public Library Association, Philadelphia) and ALA (American Library Association, Anaheim) to view the demo of our program. Your feedback has been invaluable.

Oh, and don't worry - you'll still be able to buy our productions on CD!
